Dear Mr. Talley:

We write in response to your letter of October 10, 2012, requesting that we accept the U. S. Navy Recruit Training (Basic Safety Training) to satisfy training requirements for merchant marine licenses. We have determined that:

Active duty personnel and veterans having successfully completed U.S. Navy Basic Military Training (Recruit Training) have met the below STCW, as amended, requirements for basic safety training WITH THE EXCEPTION OF donning and using an immersion suit.

Personnel that have completed Navy Basic Training and show documentation on any of the following: Navy DD-214 "Page 4", "Smart" transcript, Enlisted Summary Record (ESR), or Performance Summary Record (PSR). Applicant must provide proof of immersion suit training from a USCG approved/accepted training institution. Applicants must also present evidence of at least one year of seagoing service for every five years since completing recruit training, applicants who cannot do so must complete USCG approved original or refresher Basic Safety Training course.

Applicants meeting the above qualifications will: (1) satisfy the Personal Survival Techniques training requirements of Section A-VI/1 and Table A-VI/1-1 of the STCW Code and 46 CFR 11.202(b)(1), except for donning an immersion suit and entering the water while in the suit (an applicant must provide proof of immersion suit training from a USCG approved/accepted training institution); --AND-- (2) satisfy the Personal Safety & Social Responsibilities training requirements of 46 CFR 11.202(b)(4) and Section A-VI/1 and Table A-VI/1-4 of the STCW Code; --AND (3) satisfy the Basic Safety - Elementary First Aid training requirements of Section A-VI/1 and Table A-VI/1-3 of the STCW Code and 46 CFR 11.202(b)(3); AND if presented WITHIN ONE YEAR of the date of training, the First Aid & CPR training requirements of 46 CFR 11.205(e)(1)(iii) and 11.205(e)(2)(iv) for original issuance of a license; --AND-- (4) satisfy the Basic Safety Fire Prevention and Fire Fighting training requirements of Section A-I/1 and Table A-VI/1-2 of the STCW Code and 46 CFR 11.202(b)(2); --AND-- (5) satisfy the Basic Fire Fighting training requirements of 46 CFR 11.205(d) and 11.401(g)(1) for a license; --AND-- (6) satisfy the Fire Fighting training requirements of 46 CFR 13.121(e)(2), 13.207, 13.307(a), 13.407, 13.507 for any tankerman endorsement.

Dear Mr. Talley:

We write in response to your letter of October 10, 2012, requesting that we accept the U. S. Navy Advanced Shipboard Fire Fighting Training course to satisfy training requirements for merchant marine licenses. We have determined that:

Any applicant completing the Navy Advanced Shipboard Firefighting Training (J-495-0419) will satisfy the Advanced Fire Fighting training requirements of Section A-VI/3 and Table A-VI/3 of the STCW Code and for the Basic and Advanced Fire Fighting training requirements of 46 CFR 11.205(d) and 11.401(g)(1) for a merchant mariner license, – PROVIDED – that they have also completed Repair Party Leader School (K-495-0040) and Repair Party Leader PQS 318, – AND – that these courses were completed within five years of the date of application for the officer endorsement requested.

Please note there are pending regulations that may affect this course and the course acceptance. Upon implementation of the final rule, any changes to the regulations within this acceptance period must be incorporated into the curriculum and a course modification request submitted to the National Maritime Center for review and approval.

This determination is effective April 1, 2013, and expires on April 30, 2015.

Subsequent five-year renewal periods may be granted subject to your written request to the Commanding Officer, National Maritime Center. Application for renewal must be submitted to the National Maritime Center at least 90 days in advance.

Sincerely,

A. S. LLOYD
